

Nazwisko DUDA

Imiona Marian Fr. Władysław Pseudonim

Z domu

Data urodzenia 1960 Miejscowość, kraj

Data śmierci 12.09.2013r. Miejscowość, kraj wielka Brytania

Lat życia

Adres cmentarza

Źródła: "Nowy Czas" nr. 11 (197), 2013, s. 15

Zawód Tytuły naukowe

Rodzaj wojska Stopień wojskowy

Odznaczenia

MARIAN FR. WŁADYSŁAW DUDA
1960-2013

It is said, and usually observed, not to speak ill of the dead. But should that respect get in the way of the truth? Władysław Duda was a very unusual, furtive figure. In fact Private Eye, with whom Fr Duda had a minor spat in October 2010 over alleged destroyed, important Fawley Court land and trust deeds, first advised FCOB Ltd of his death on 12 September this year.

Having threatened Private Eye with legal action, Władysław Duda in effect did nothing. Since leaving the Marians (defrocked?) in 2004 Duda worked as a community officer in the community centre in the parish of St Thomas's, Finsbury Park. By all accounts he did his job well, and Anglican Fr Stephen Coles had nothing but praise for him. That said, it was thanks to Fr Coles's alertness that FCOB's two year search for Duda ended. (Readers interested in Duda's past should consult Nowy Czas articles; "The Return of Vlad", and "Countess Mycielska").

Regrettably, Fr Duda who was cremated in early October, it is unknown if he leaves behind a family, or worldly belongings, has certainly taken with him some very valuable Fawley Court 'secrets'. His death was surrounded by a mysterious, four year undiagnosed illness.

NOWY CZAS nr 11 (197) 2013, s. 15