Zmarł prof. A. Fidler. — 9-go czerwca zmarł w Ottawie w wieku 66 lat profesor dr Antoni Fidler, były dziekan wydziału medycznego, który przed niedawnym czasem przeszedł na emeryturę. Zmarły należał do jednych z najbardziej znanych naukowców i lekarzy polskich. W okresie przedwojennym był docentem uniwersytetu warszawskiego. W okresie wojny pełnił obowiązki profesora w Edynburgu w Szkocji oraz funkcję przybocznego lekarza prez. Raczkiewicza i gen. Sikorskiego. Do Kanady przybył w 1947 roku na zaproszenie rządu kanadyjskiego, który zaofiarował mu katedrę na uniwersytecie w Ottawie. Pogrzeb profesora Fidlera, który osierocił żonę i córkę w Polsce oraz siostrę w Szwajcarii, odbył się 12 czerwca w Ottawie. (179)

Apt. 5,
Montreal, Que.

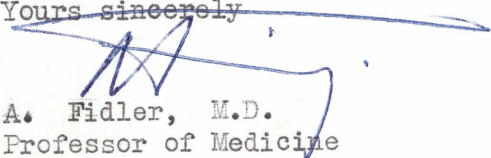

Dear Mr. Wolodkowicz:

In reply to your letter of September 25th, please find enclosed my short curriculum vitae and the list of my publications.

I was born December 13, 1901 in Radom, Poland. I graduated from the University of Warsaw in 1927 and became Associate Professor (Dozent) of Medicine in the University of Warsaw in 1933. My thesis for this degree won the first prize of the Warsaw Academy of Medicine. During the war I served with the Polish Army in Poland, France and Britain. While in Britain I was attached to the Polish School of Medicine of the University of Edinburg as a Senior Lecturer in Medicine. In 1941, I came to Canada as Professor of Medicine at the University of Ottawa. I am a Canadian citizen since December 1952.

I am a Member of the Advisory Board of Ontario Cancer and Research Foundation, Ontario Alcoholism Foundation, Canadian Rheumatism and Arthritis Society and Canadian Rheumatism Association. I am a Member of Canadian Physiotherapy Association, Canadian Heart Association, American Medical Colleges and Academy of Medicine of Ottawa.

Yours sincerely

A. Fidler, M.D.
