Maria (Olejarz) Frydryk
May 7, 2013

Maria (Olejarz) Frydryk, 85, died Tuesday, May 7, 2013 at the Grace Barker Nursing Center. She was the widow of Josef Frydryk. She was born in Poland, a daughter of the late Kazimierz and Agata Olejarz, and had lived in the Olneyville section of Providence most her life.

Prior to living in Olneyville she endured many hardships during World War II. She spent several years in Altenstadt, Germany at the Displaced Persons Camp where she met her husband Josef.

Mrs. Frydryk was an active member of St. Adalbert's Church.

She is survived by her son-in-law Thomas Fairchild, her grandchildren Marek and Daniela Fairchild, and her sister Aniela Rudnik. She was also the mother of the late Stanley, Erwin, and Teresa Frydryk.

Her funeral will be held Tuesday at 9:30AM from the Hoey-Arpin-Williams-King Funeral Home, 168 Academy Ave., Providence with a Mass of Christian burial in St. Adalbert Church, 866 Atwells Ave., Providence at 10:30AM. Relatives and friends are invited. Visitation will be Tuesday 8:30 to 9:30AM.. Burial will be in St. Ann's Cemetery, Cranston.

ARRANGEMENTS BY SUPINSKI & BORRELLI.
